TRADE FAILURES.

W. T. COOPER, James Cooper, Esq., Rep.

representative from Pontiac county to the Mississippi Legislature, is on a visit of a few days to the city, having on his return from Jackson.

He is accompanied by his family.

GORDON HARRING—A few day boarders are accommodated in a pleasant private family residence on Third street, between Washington and Payne, by immediate application at the Cooper House of the Appeal office.

ROBES PANAMA.—We understand that great painting has arrived in our city, and will soon be on exhibition at the Old Fellow's Hall.

This painting comes highly recommended by the clergy and press.

GEN. W. T. HAWKES.—The Louisville

Advertiser says he has paid for his complete restoration to health and safety at the distinguished Tennessee organization, Gen. W. T. Hawks, who for some years past has been an inmate of the Lexington Lilactic Asylum. His doctors one lecture or more in Lexington during the present week.

HAWKES, LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.—

HAWKES RETURNING.—We had the pleasure of an interview yesterday with Mr. Jas. L.

AUSTIN, one of the Representatives from Marshall county, who was returning home, the Legislature having adjourned on the 18th inst.

He came from Dr. Tidmarsh and Dr. Dawson, whom he met at Mr. Austin's, as far as this clip.

SPOOKS.—A correspondent at Saubury writes under date of November 20th:

"Yester evening a stranger consulted me at Harry's saloon, about eight miles north of this. He had in his possession a letter, directed to his parents in England, which was signed W. T. MACLEAY. He also had about $300 in his pocket. He had shown no signs of an unusual mind, and no reason can be assigned for his remarkable act."

THREE HUNDRED FAILURES.—We refer to the reader the financial condition of our State bank, to ascertain that our State Bank has advanced to eighty-eight cents in the dollar. This intelligence will be very ac-cusable, especially to those who made them the profligate of bank loans, while at the same time it must be gratifying to every citizen of the State (and who does not?) who feels concerned for his welfare and standing abroad.

MEMPHIS BANK.—This neighborhood was an early center of scenes of scandalous quarreling and fighting among the women living there. Biting, scratching, screaming, swearing, ripping of clothes and tearing of hair were the most prominent parts of the individual performances until the police interceded and made several arrests. The prisoners were probably dealt with by Capt. East just prior to morning. Other signs of wife beatings may be sought in broken windows.

MEMPHIS BANK.—In consequence of the spurious and illegal nature of the business which has been conducted by the memphis bank, the bank has been compelled to pay a considerable quantity of local,

river, and miscellaneous matter, proceedings of the legislature, etc. An
